Geography KS3 Learning Journey

9

Assessment

- Africa – climate, biomes, desertification
- Africa – politics and changing population
- Sustainability – how the world's uses of resources are changing – homes, transport, business, climate
- Superpowers – China and the USA. Wealth, inequalities and politics. The role of Russia.
- Superpowers – historical role of UK, and the growth of China.
- Glaciation – key processes, including transportation and erosion and the formation of landscapes.

8

- Coastal Environments – Case study: Happisburgh.

Assessment

- Tectonics – plate boundaries and the different hazards these can cause. Reducing impact. Case Study: Japan, China
- Tectonics – Case Study: Japan, China
- Coastal Environments – key processes including erosion and weathering. Case study: Happisburgh.
- Population Change – country and global level. Birth rate, migration and death rate. Case study: Japan
- Glaciation – key processes, including transportation and erosion and the formation of landscapes.

7

- Weather – climate change and case studies

Assessment

- Asia – physical geography and the diversity of the continent
- Asia – human aspects of Asia including settlements, economy, development and it's importance within the world
- Desert climates and Weather – what is weather climate? Global phenomena
- The Geography of the UK – physical characteristics and human aspects
- Map Skills – grid references, relief, scale, directions

West Norfolk Academies Trust